TCOSCPA Leadership Award Scholarships

To be eligible for these scholarships, you must be an Oklahoma resident or plan on settling in Oklahoma when you graduate. You must also be eligible to graduate with an academic major in accounting during 2018-2019 school year or be pursuing the 150 hours required to be eligible for the CPA exam.

If you are interested in being considered for the scholarship from the Tulsa Chapter of the OSCP, please visit our website for more information.

All required paperwork, including a reference from your accounting instructor and registered transcripts, should be mailed to the Chapter as soon as possible, but no later than May 1, 2018.

The Scholarship Committee will review the eligible applications and select the scholarship recipients. Scholarship winners will be notified and honored at a future at a future Tulsa Chapter luncheon at the DoubleTree Warren Place in Tulsa.

Additional questions can be directed to Kristin Aylett at kaylett0107@gmail.com or Mark Owen at admin@tcsocpa.org

April 2018 Highlight

Mike McCrary

Tulsa Chapter Member since June 18, 2007

What was your first job after passing the CPA Exam? I was working as a staff auditor at Arthur Andersen when I learned that I had passed the exam.

Where did you receive your accounting degree? Oklahoma State University

What type of accounting do you practice? For the past 22 years, I have been on the accounting faculty at The University of Tulsa. Additionally, I serve as the Director of Accreditation and Assessment for the Collins College of Business at TU.

How do you give back to the community? While my children were young, I was very active in the Tulsa Public School system. I was PTSA treasurer at four different schools, PTSA president at one, helped established Eisenhower International School, and served as co-chair of two different TPS district-wide committees. I have been a member of the Liaison with Educational Institutions Committee of the OSCP for the past 14 years, having served as chair for ten of those years. Additionally, I directed the Tulsa Festival Ringers (Tulsa's only auditioned handbell ensemble) for eleven years. For the past 40 years, I have served as the organist for churches in Tulsa and am currently the organist at All Souls Unitarian Church. I have served as Dean (president) of the Tulsa Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and have been part of the planning committee for a Tulsa handbell festival for many years. I have completed a six-year term as a national board member of the Handbell Musicians of America and am now serving as secretary of that Board. I also am treasurer of the Tulsa County Stonewall Democrats.

How do you benefit from your Tulsa Chapter membership? As someone who lives in an academic environment, I am very appreciative of the Tulsa Chapter's support of accounting students in Oklahoma. It is so important to encourage our students to enter the profession. CPAs in Tulsa, whether in public practice or the corporate and not-for-profit world, have been wonderful in supporting TU's accounting program. I'm proud to be a CPA and proud of the Tulsa Chapter's continuing efforts to advance the profession.

As a CPA what trends do you see evolving? People skills and critical thinking skills are becoming more and more important. Technology has either eased or replaced much of the number-crunching duties of CPAs. But the interpretation, analysis and decision making aspects of the CPAs role and the ability to clearly explain one's thought processes continues to be needed by both business and society.

What would someone be surprised to learn about you? I'm horrible at remembering numbers.

What book are you currently reading? Skinny Legs and All by Tom Robbins.

Name one short term goal? Get the Collins College of Business at TU ready for its next accreditation visit in October.
