OSCPA CAREER NIGHT

This year's OSCP Career Night will be: Classroom to Conference Room: How to Begin a Successful Career in Accounting and it will be hosted at the University of Tulsa on September 25, 2014. The evening features a keynote speaker, resume reviews, mock interviews and a panel discussion featuring CPAs from various career paths. Students will have the opportunity to network with CPAs and recruiters from various firms and industries across Oklahoma. We would also like to ask for your help in making this event great. These accounting students and future CPAs are looking for opportunities to talk with CPAs and recruiters about the profession, the application process and what the real world is really like. We need volunteers to also review resumes and perform mock interview. All we need from you is a few hours and a willingness to share your career story. It will be a great opportunity for the students to learn more about their options as a CPA and for you to give back! ! If you are interested in volunteering, please email Aubrey Weatherford at aweatherford@oscpa.com.
